HOMELESS AND PENNILESS.

Deported Miners Reach Denver Under Strong Guard.

Denver, Colo., June S.—The twenty four deported union miners from the Cripple Creek district, exiled sine the serious riots in that section, rode into Denver about midnight in a special train over the Denver & Rio Grand or this district over about midnight in a special train over the Denver & Rio Grand or the car stood nine guards armed with shotguns and army rifles, who had been deputized to accompany them to Denver from the gold camp. The miners were unarmed. Nearly all were penniless. The men were met by about forty of the delegates to the convention of the Western Federation of Miners and were taken to a restaurance and their fromey and valuables taken. They also declare that the Cripple Creek district is no longer safe for union men. "Any one who has an enemy," said one, "had better get outbecause it is impossible for him to be protected there now."

The miners assert that when arrested the military and Citizens' Alliance and their fromey and valuables taken. They also declare that before they were placed on the train they were lined up to the proprietors of the People's Supply company, who has also declare that before they were placed on the train they were lined up to a restaurant of the military and Citizens' Alliance and their fromey and valuables taken. They are told that they were wanted in Cripple Creek but that they must take out cards in the Cripple Creek digit not on the work at once or the proprietors of the People's Supply company, who has also declare that before they were blaced on the train they were lined up to a proprietor of the people's store, was deported several months ago and has not been permitted to return.
